SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 110—

A JOINT RESOLUTION PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE XVII, SECTION 2 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF FLORIDA; PROVIDING THAT REVISION OF THE CONSTITUTION AS ADOPTED BY CONVENTION SHALL BE SUBMITTED TO THE ELECTORS AT THE NEXT GENERAL ELECTION.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That article XVII, section 2 of the Florida constitution be amended as set forth below and that said resolution be submitted to the electors of Florida for ratification or rejection at the general election to be held in November, 1964:

Section 2—If at any time the legislature, by a vote of two thirds of all the members of both houses, shall determine that a revision of this constitution is necessary, such determination shall be entered upon their respective journals, with the yeas and nays thereon. Notice of said action shall be published weekly in one newspaper in every county in which a newspaper is published, for three (3) months preceding the next general election of representatives, and in those counties where no newspaper is published, notice shall be given by posting at the several polling precincts in such counties for six (6) weeks next preceding said election. The electors at said election may vote for or against the revision in question. If a majority of the electors so voting be in favor of revision, the legislature chosen at such election shall provide by law for a convention to revise the constitution and shall provide for the conduct and rules of such convention. The convention shall be held within six (6) months after passage of the law, providing for the convention. Delegates to the convention shall equal in number and be apportioned among the various counties as the membership of the House of Representatives is apportioned. The convention upon adoption of a revised constitution shall certify a copy of it to the Governor. Five (5) printed copies of the revised constitution shall be transmitted by the Secretary of State to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of each county, and five (5) to the county judge of each county. These copies shall be distributed throughout the various counties and shall be available for examination by any person desiring to examine same for a period of at least three (3) months immediately preceding the next general election. At this election the revised constitution shall be submitted to the electors of the state, for approval or rejection. If a majority of the electors voting upon the revision of the constitution shall approve same, the revised constitution shall take effect immediately upon such approval by the electors.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has adopted—

By Representatives Furlong, Dubbin, Weissenborn, Mathews, Fincher, Baker, Wolfson, Pettigrew, MacKenzie, Gong and Yarborough of Dade—

H. M. NO. 229—A MEMORIAL TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES TO MORE FULLY RECOGNIZE THAT THE IMPACT OF APPROXIMATELY ONE HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND (150,000) CUBAN REFUGEES HAS CREATED A SUBSTANTIAL AND PERSISTENT UNEMPLOYMENT AND SOCIAL PROBLEM, WHICH HAS AND DOES EXIST IN THE HEAVILY POPULATED DADE COUNTY AREA AND THAT FURTHER AND IMMEDIATE ACTION MUST BE TAKEN AND PROMPT REMEDIES BE FOUND TO ALLEVIATE THE HARMFUL CONDITIONS THAT DO NOW EXIST AND WILL CONTINUE TO EXIST AND BECOME ACUTE WITH THE CONTINUOUS HEAVY INFLUX OF THESE REFUGEES AMONG THE RESIDENTS OF THIS STATE.

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States has heretofore given recognition to the existence of the large numbers of Cuban refugees in this state and to the problems caused thereby, and

WHEREAS, this large number of refugees who continue to flee from the tyrannical and oppressive conditions of the communistic government of Cuba to seek a haven in a democratic country where human rights and dignity are recognized supreme, and

WHEREAS, it has become obvious that the needs of these refugees who, through no fault of their own, have become a burden on certain local areas of this state and that the local resources and facilities of these areas have been taxed beyond their capacities, and

WHEREAS, the education of Cuban refugee children is now pressing hard on the educational funds and facilities provided by the state of Florida, and

WHEREAS, the present existence of this large number of Cuban refugees has already placed tremendous and herculean economic burdens upon the local residents and the local governments of these areas in that the local labor market has been drastically affected to the detriment of the permanent working population, and

WHEREAS, many of these local residents are being displaced from their regular employment and thus becoming an additional economic burden to the local welfare bureau and in many instances causing the permanent residents in these areas to become a burden on their friends and relatives, and

WHEREAS, the charitable organizations in these areas have also had placed on them an unduly heavy economic burden arising as a result of the tremendous influx of Cuban refugees which has strained their resources to the breaking point, and

WHEREAS, it has become obvious that the needs of these refugees cannot be met from local resources and facilities which have been substantially depleted, and

WHEREAS, regardless of previous measures to alleviate this burdensome problem, the continued increase in the numbers of refugees to be found in the Dade county area, which is the major port of entry for these helpless and unfortunate refugees, due to the existing policy of the United States government, and

WHEREAS, there is the ever-present danger that the problems created by this tremendous influx of Cuban refugees may spread to other areas of Florida and aggravate their problems, and

WHEREAS, this tremendous problem must be immediately alleviated in order to prevent irreparable harm, both to the economic and social well-being of the citizens of this State, and

WHEREAS, these helpless and unfortunate Cuban refugees and local residents who have been displaced from their places of employment because of these problems in these local areas, now have more than doubled in number the unemployment in these local areas and have brought the unemployment situation in these areas to a critical stage, and

WHEREAS, there is pending legislation in the Congress of the United States with a definite purpose to alleviate the acute economic and social problems caused in these local areas by Cuban refugees fleeing the tyrannical and oppressive pressure of the communistic government of Cuba, NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the Congress of the United States be and it is hereby respectfully urged and requested to give full recognition to the fact that the Cuban refugee problem in this state is primarily the responsibility of the federal government and of national concern and ask that additional assistance and relief be provided to Dade county and any other counties similarly affected and that other Cuban refugee centers be established in the United States and other ports of entry be established for the entrance of these unfortunate and helpless refugees from communist tyranny.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this memorial be dispatched to the President of the United States; to the President of the United States Senate; to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States; to the Secretary of Commerce of the United States; to the Secretary of Labor of the United States; to the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare of the United States; and to each member of the Florida Congressional Delegation.

—and respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Respectfully,

LAMAR BLEDSOE

Chief Clerk, House of Representatives
